

INTENTIONAL LEADERSHIP

Don't let a lack of clarity destroy your leadership

We're excited to sponsor Jeremiah Miller, a profound and proven millennial leadership coach, to share his insights on leadership. Jeremiah will give you the tools and the strategies to become a more intentional leader at work and in your life. He is a dynamic speaker who delivers his unique message through stories and real life examples. Here's a taste of his approach...

What are we going to discuss?

- I have some bad news and some good news. The bad news is that everything is a leadership issue. If you are frustrated, disappointed, or dissatisfied by the results of your team, as the leader, it's on you. The good news is that everything is a leadership issue. As a leader, you have the power to fix it.
- The vast majority of problems at work are caused by a lack of clarity. In this workshop, you will learn how to create absolute clarity for your team in four vital areas: Purpose, Goals, Expectations, and Obstacles.
- The holy trinity of leadership is Clarity, Strategy, and Accountability. This workshop will focus on Clarity.
