

Respect in the Workplace – Non-Supervisor Harassment Prevention Webinar

Thursday, March 22, 2018
(10:00-11:15 AM)

Respect in the Workplace training for non-supervisors is highly recommended for all California employers who want to ensure their employees understand appropriate and respectful workplace behavior. This interactive webinar will identify the most often sited types of workplace harassment, discrimination and inappropriate behavior by evaluating real-life situations and looking at examples that may or may not cross the line. We will also review abusive conduct and the consequences of workplace harassment. This 75-minute workshop is an efficient and fun option to raise employees' awareness of Respect in the Workplace.

Who Should Attend? Non-supervisory employees (this training is not for supervisors and managers who must meet the requirements of AB 1825).
